

Save the Date: November 20, 2019 in Orlando, Florida

www.ANCDS.org

ANCDS Annual Scientific Meeting

Functional treatment of neurogenic communication disorders-fueling the future

Historical Overview- The trajectory or evolution toward incorporation of patient-centered and integrated care in neurorehabilitation

Presenters: McKay Sohlberg, Ph.D., Michelle Bourgeois, Ph.D., Jacqueline Hinckley, Ph.D.

Starting Points in Person-Centered Care: Planning for implementation at the beginning

Presenter: Natalie Douglas, Ph.D.

Starting Points in Person-Centered Care: Planning for clinician and consumer value and acceptability

Presenter: Jacqueline Hinckley, Ph.D.

Starting Points in Clinical Practice: Determining the client's priorities

Presenters: Michelle Bourgeois, Ph.D., Jacqueline Hinckley, Ph.D.

Starting Points in Clinical Practice: Goal attainment scaling for person-centered treatment objectives

Presenter: McKay Sohlberg, Ph.D.

Engaging the Organization: Engaging the organization- get a seat at the table, quality improvement initiatives, Fitting into existing policy/organizational mandates

Presenter: Natalie Douglas, Ph.D.

Engaging the Future: University partnerships, student-led programs, and leveraging volunteers

Presenter: Michelle Bourgeois, Ph.D.

